

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Antonio Gordon, Appellant.

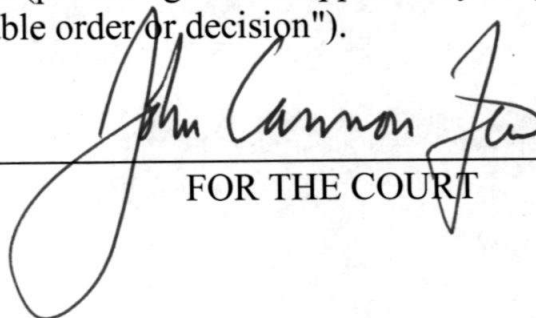

Appellate Case No. 2014-000558

---

ORDER

---

Appellant has filed a notice of appeal from a letter of the York County Clerk of Court's Office, explaining that Appellant's motion to vacate and withdraw his guilty plea would be filed in the general sessions' file. After careful consideration of the letter and Appellant's filings, this appeal is dismissed because the letter is not appealable. See Rule 201, SCACR (providing that an appeal may only be taken from "any final judgment, appealable order or decision").
