Re: Kevin L. Holt v. State
Appellate Case No. 2014-000953

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/whatsnew/displaywhatsnew.cfm?indexID=932 . Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Finally, you indicate that you will not be representing Mr. Holt in this appellate proceeding. I remind you that under Rule 71.1 of the South Carolina Rule of Civil Procedure that you remain his counsel of record before this Court unless you are automatically relieved under Rule 602, SCACR, if the Division of Appellate Defense determines that it will provide representation, or on motion, this Court allows you to withdraw under Rule 264. If you believe that Mr. Holt may be indigent, you should assist him in promptly submitting an affidavit of indigency to the Division of Appellate Defense.

Very truly yours,
