Re: The State v. Tylor Desteffino Ford
Appellate Case No. 2014-000947

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, the judge is not listed and the indictment number is not the full indictment number, showing the county number or whether it is a general sessions or common pleas indictment number.
- Since this is an appeal from a guilty plea, nolo contendere plea, or plea pursuant to Alford, Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires "a written explanation showing that there is an issue which can be reviewed on appeal. This explanation should identify the issue(s) to be raised on appeal and the factual basis for the issue(s) including how the issue(s) was raised below and the ruling of the lower court on that issue(s). If an issue was not raised to and ruled on by the lower court, the explanation shall include argument and citation to legal authority showing how this issue can be reviewed on appeal."

- According to documents provided, the appellant's name should be spelled as follows:

Tylor Desteffino Ford

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jonny Abbott Kitchings". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping horizontal line extending to the right from the end of the name.
