

Re: THE STATE V. LAMAR GRAVES
APPELLATE CASE No. 2013-001873

DEAR OFFICE OF "COURT OF APPEALS"

I have not yet received the Transcript
Rule 207 of The South Carolina Appellate Court Court Rules Requires me to Contact the Office of Appellate Administration I was under the impression a letter November 13, 2013 saying Counsel must serve and file a motion to withdraw pursuant to Rule 264(b) SCACR, otherwise the Court recognizes them as counsel on Appeal, so please provide proof that you have ordered the transcript of the hearing within (10) day. Then I have not receive the Transcript still On 3/3/14 Appellants Attorney filed a motion to be relieved as counsel the motion was granted, and I was told if Appellant fails to obtain new counsel within 30 days the Court of Appeals will presume Appellant is proceeding pro, se (ORDER) by Judge John Cannon Few for the Court, so I never received no Transcript. SCDC has not yet send me my report on the pass 6 months to show the Courts that I am indigent so I am ~~not~~ able to receive an Transcript so I ask the Courts to please provide me the Transcript soon as possible

ALSO ATTACH WERE
