Re: Sun, Joseph v. Matyushevsky, Olesya (L. Sun) AND Joseph Sun v. Olysia Matyushevsky AND Joseph Sun v. Olysia Matyushevsky (C. Varg)
Appellate Case No. 2011-204367

Dear Mr. Sun:

I am writing to follow up on the April 9, 2014, deficiency letter from our Clerk's office.

In that letter the court identified an instance in which the document you filed did not comply with the South Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure. We have determined that the deficiency is serious enough that we must dismiss the appeal if it is not corrected. We have already given you ten days to make the corrections. If you fail to correct this deficiency within ten days of the date of this letter, your appeal will be dismissed. The deficiencies we previously identified were:

- Please provide a signed certificate of compliance with Rule 210(g), SCACR, to accompany the amended record on appeal.

Very truly yours,

JOHN CANNON FEW, CHIEF JUDGE
