RE: MOORE V. BRIDGES, 2011-CP-11-123 Appeal Case No:2014-000131.

Dear Ms. Allen;

I am the appellate in the above case, I am writing to you because I am having some problems with the interpretation and understanding of South Carolina Appellate Rule 211(a) in regards to the fifteen (15) copies that are required with the final brief. My Question is, does the Court require 15 copies of the designation of matter along with the fifteen copies of the brief?

Additionally, SCDC and the Tyger River Administrators are informing me that I will be limited to three (3) copies of the Designated Matters to be included on the record of Appeal and also three (3) copies of the final Brief. Whether I am a Pro-Se indigent party that has been granted in forma pauperis or not.

My Designated Matter is approximately 100 pages and my Final Brief approximately 10-15 additional pages. I Respectfully request that if there is anyway a waiver could be granted so that I would be permitted to serve the Original and one copy of the record on appeal and the brief to the Court and one copy to the respondent, I would be most grateful, it also would save the state both time and money.

In any event, must there be 15 copies of the "DESIGNATED MATTERS OF RECORD ON APPEAL" included with the 15 copies of the final Brief?

Please assist me in this matter.

With Kind Regards,

Russell D. Moore

✓ No, we would provide our usual number of copies. It is up to the inmate to ask the court for relief from the fifteen-copy requirement (as this inmate is doing).

Thanks,
Chris

Mr. Florian,

While we are discussing this letter, can I in reality copy these documents for him 15 times for a total of 100s of pages?
