RE: Appellate Case No. 2014-000077 Myers v Kaufmann et al

Dear Ms. Allen,

Today I received your order that we did not file our initial brief and designation of matter dated March 13, 2014.

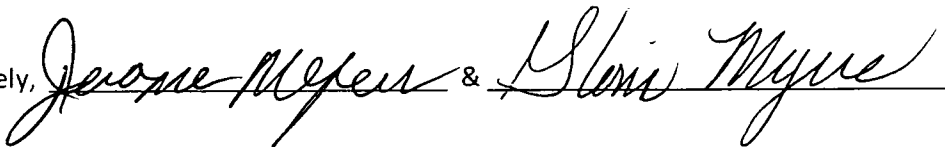

WE had attached our string of correspondences (5 enclosures attached hereto) in our efforts to obtain the transcript and understand that after we have the transcript, that our initial brief and designation of matter would then begin to accrue time for filing the initial brief and designation.

You can see from my first letter to the court reporter -- whose name we got from the hearing and court clerk that we have been seeking the transcript and are still waiting for the transcript. These start with the hearing Judge was transferred to Judge Harrington from Judge Dennis because we had filed a Motion for Judge Dennis' recusal. My letter dated January 3, 2014 to Ms. Vicer is attached. She wrote back, we wrote to Ms D. Garrison on March 5, 2014. She did not yet write us back. Our letter is attached.

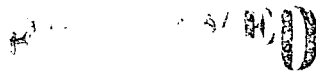

Please know that we FILED the NOTICE OF APPEAL on January 2, 2014. The court reporter's name came from the folk in Charleston County Court. The recusal motion was mailed to us on December 10, 2013 for a hearing on our motion on January 7, 2014. That hearing was canceled by the court and never held. That notice is attached too FYI.

Please correct the Record in the Appellant's favor in that your ORDER dated March 13, 2014 to reinstate the appeal process in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jerome Myers & Gloria Myers

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Myers:

I am in receipt of your letter requesting a transcript of record for a hearing that took place on November 20, 2013 before the Honorable Kristi Harrington. Unfortunately, I was not the court reporter with Judge Harrington on the day of November 20, 2013.

If you think you may have the date wrong I will be happy to look up another date for you. If you know for sure that was the date of your hearing and it was in front of Judge Harrington, please refer to the SC Judicial Website under Terms of Court for the court reporter that was scheduled for your hearing on that date.

Sincerely,
