I received a letter today stating my request for a second extension to file the Initial Brief of Respondent was untimely because the brief was due on April 7th. See the April 7 email below requesting a first extension. Apparently, it was sent to opposing counsel, but the Court was inadvertently not included. I did not realize the request was not forwarded to the court. Will the Court accept this as filed, or do I need to file a motion? Please advise.

Re: The State v. Roger Williams
Appellate Case No. 2012-213388

The Initial Brief of Respondent and Designation of Matter in the above appeal are due to be served and filed April 7, 2014. However, due to a heavy workload, I am requesting a 30-day extension. This is the first extension request in this case, and it is not intended for the purpose of delay. By copy of this email, I am advising counsel for Appellant, Susan Hackett, Esquire, of this extension request.

Sincerely,

Deborah R.J. Shupe
