

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In the Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM ADMINISTRATIVE LAW COURT
Honorable John D. McLeod

Case No. 2014-000723
(Docket No. 14-ALJ-04-0166)

Samuel Burt, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Due to extraordinary circumstances, Appellant hereby requests a twenty-one (21) day extension of time pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, to file my Initial Brief due May 10, 2014. In support of this motion, Appellant respectfully requests this Honorable Court to observe that his typewriter has developed a steadily worsening malfunction as can be seen upon the face of this document. He needs the additional time to either repair the machine and type the brief, or to handwrite the brief in accordance with these Rules. Appellant is wholly indigent and has no alternate means to prepare his brief nor pay to have the brief typed or written. If the Court declines to grant this Motion, Appellant will necessarily fall into default because there is no way he can handwrite his Initial Brief by the deadline.

Respectfully submitted,

Samuel Burt, #141532
