MEMORANDUM TO THE RECORDS

CLERK OF COURT

Honorable Daniel Shearouse

1231 Gervais Street

Columbia, S. C. 29201

IN REF: Mr. Wesley Edward Smith, III Appellant v. Charleston County School District et al
Case 2003-10-CP-4751

Dear Honorable Daniel Shearouse;

CORRECTION: This memorandum submitted in support of the Appellant notice for Writ in the above related captioned civil case. The appellant case court reference number should refer to case number 2014-00064. As to be inserted where applicable for this appellant case action.

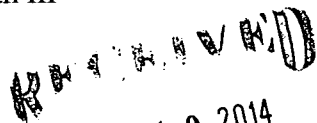

In this action, the Appellant court claims that the act was untimely, but I diabolically objected to non-compliance of CCSD actions to follow the written rules when it clearly states by written notification of rule 203 (1)(B). This issue hereunto pertaining for which the act is or presumed as untimely on its face. Upon closer review of all relevant docketed record this fact which reasons are give to believe negligence due to recklessness (cross complaint) existed.

The fact that CCSD initiated a just cause action within the boundaries and under the written law as grounds for terminating from employment Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III, this court retains the jurisdictional rights over the parties. No notices served gives reason to believe my procedural due process right have been violated which causes an irregular prejudgment for one party, but not based on the rule of law. The alleged violation breach of duty, breaches the contractual relationships that exist with the citizen trust and the delegated; which to inform all opposing parties involved in a suit of law by providing supporting memorandum of law. A complaint of CCSD alleged personal injuries sustained and relief requested by complaint should have also accompanied all aforementioned documents which are absent here (proof needed).

Sincerely, Person of legal Interest in that case

Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III
