THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

In The Supreme Court

APPEAL FROM GREENVILLE COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

G. Edward Welmaker, Circuit Court Judge
Case No. 2010-CP-23-9792

Appellate Case No. 2013-001945

RECEIVED

MAY 20 2014

S.C. SUPREME COURT

Charles Christopher Williams,

Appellant,

v.

The State of South Carolina,

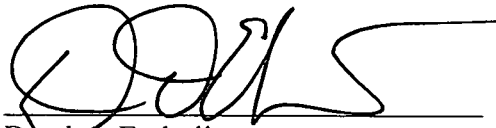

Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The undersigned was appointed to represent the petitioner in filing a petition for writ of certiorari. I have made two requests for an extension under Order 2009-03-18-01 and the petition and appendix are currently due May 28, 2014. I now move for a third extension upon the showing of what I believe is good cause. The facts supporting the good cause are as follows. This case is a capital case that is extremely complicated with approximately 3,500 pages of transcript. I feel confident that I will in fact make the May 28, 2014 deadline, however, out of an abundance of caution in order to protect my client in this very serious matter, and to make sure I can I present a quality product before this Court, and because I do not want to make a last minute motion for an extension before the Court if I am not able to file by May 28, 2014, I would request a seven (7) day extension to file the petition and appendix in this matter, or until June 4, 2014.

On behalf of petitioner, I so move.

Attorney for Appellant

I am the only other attorney in the firm of Ross and Enderlin, PA. Derek Enderlin has explained the circumstances above, and considering the extensive record in this case, the complicated issues, and the serious nature of the case, it appears that good cause exists and an extension is warranted in this case.
