RE: ATTORNEY NOT RESPONDING TO REQUEST TO AMEND MY APPELLATE BRIEF:

2013-001196

Dear Mr. Shearouse

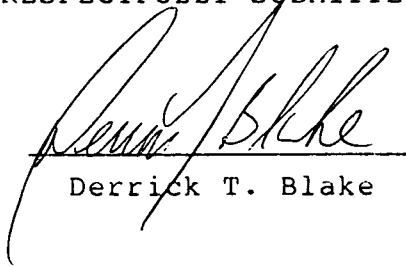

I want to first thank you for all your help in the pass. This matter however needs to be addressed ASAP. I am being represented by SCCID attorney CARMEN GANJESHANI. She wrote a brief for possible relief in the way of a Writ of Certiorari. I spoke with her prior to receiving my copy of her brief.

My concern in this matter is she only argued one issue. In speaking to her she was not at all interested in anything I had to say. I then asked her to do a Johnson Brief if she was not going to make sure my issues would be preserved. I raised four issues in my PCR. After receiving her brief it was painfully clear that she really did not even try to preserve my issues.

I studied §17-27-100 and that made it clear. If my issues were not preserved I could not raise them in any other court. I wrote my attorney and asked her to please amend the brief to include the other issues. She refuses to respond to my letter. I was able to call but that avenue has been removed. I had my family call but she will not either answer the call or return the phone calls. So I am pleading with you for help in this matter.

I did inform her that I would address this matter in the courts if she refuse to do what she was trained to do. I read her brief. I stated to her prior to receiving my copy if you do not feel the issues are to your liken still preserve them for the next court if needed please. Thus the reason for this letter. I do not want my only chance to be just one issue. Being that all four issues were ruled upon by the PCR judge. However vague they were. So if you would please forward this to whom ever can help. I feel that it would be a grave injustice if any attorney failed to give their client a fighting chance. Thank you for your assistance in this matter. Could you please sent me a date stamped copy of this along with any information as to how may be able to help.

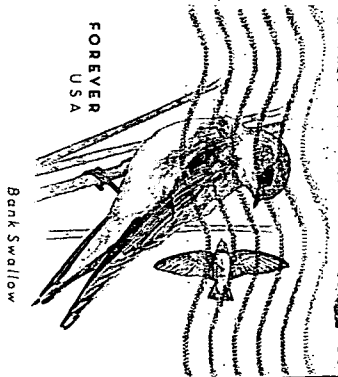

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
