Re: State v. Ahmad Jamal Wilkins, Appellate Case No. 2012-212387

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

On April 8, 2014, I ordered a transcript in the above-referenced matter from Carol M. Thueme. I asked this Court to hold the timelines in abeyance pending receipt of the transcript. I recently learned from Ms. Thueme that she has no transcript to provide. She stated that she did work with Judge Cooper on February 16, 2012, but that her notes and courtroom log sheets did not indicate that she was involved in Mr. Wilkins' case on that date. There are no more outstanding transcript requests. Therefore, this case may be taken out of abeyance. We are setting our calendar to reflect a due date of June 20, 2014. If this is incorrect, please contact me.

I am copying opposing counsel on this letter to advise him of the status of the appeal as well. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
