RE: The State v. Lamar A. Graves
Appellate Case No: 2013-001873

Dear Mr. Graves:

I am in receipt of your recent letter requesting proof that I ordered the transcript of your hearing on a motion for new trial. A review of my file in this case indicates that the Court of Appeals relieved your attorney from the obligation of representing you on appeal. It also appears that you have not obtained new counsel.

Please be advised that I do not represent you. I represent the State against you in this appeal. I also have not ordered the transcript because it is the responsibility of the appealing party to timely request and pay for the transcript. See Rule 207, SCACR. You are the appealing party.

Sincerely,

Salley W. Elliott
Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General
