

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

David Bentley, #337750, Respondent/Appellant, v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections,
Appellant/Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-002692

The Honorable Deborah Brooks Durden
Trial Court Case No. 2013ALJ040456AP

ORDER

The respondent/appellant filed a motion for extension of time to file his initial brief. The Court sent a deficiency letter on February 19, 2014 requesting the motion filing fee. On March 12, 2014 the Court sent a letter advising the respondent/appellant that no action will be taken on the motion for extension unless the motion fee is paid or a proper motion to proceed in forma pauperis is filed. Neither a motion to proceed in forma pauperis or the motion for extension of time's filing fee has been received. The respondent/appellant has also failed to timely serve and file his initial brief and designation of matter. Accordingly, the appeal of the respondent/appellant is dismissed. The appeal of the appellant/respondent remains pending. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR
