Re: Andrea Person v. State of South Carolina

Dear Ms. Lindsay:

Pursuant to the Supreme Court's order of May 22, 2014, our office will be associated with you in connection with this appeal for costs of printing and binding only, up to a maximum cost of ten (.10) cents per page and $3.25 per volume for binding. Reimbursement for printing will only be for the quantity of documents required for this agency. You will be solely responsible for all aspects of the appeal, including printing and filing. However, this Office will obtain and furnish all necessary transcripts without cost to you or your client.

I need to stress that this Office cannot reimburse you for costs of transcripts which you order on your own. In order for the state to bear the costs of the transcripts, these must be ordered through the Office of Appellate Defense, and not by private counsel.

Your case must be registered at www.sccid.sc.gov. In order to receive reimbursement for printing and binding costs, you must submit an electronic voucher; the Order of Appointment or a copy of the letter from Division of Appellate Defense approving you to be associated as counsel; a copy of this letter as authorization for reimbursement from the Division of Appellate Defense; and the original paid receipt for the cost of printing and binding. Payment will be made only to the attorney of record. Payment cannot be made directly to the vendor or supplier.

If you have any questions concerning printing, please contact me at the number listed above. If you have any questions about payment or costs, please contact Kathy Bonds at 803-734-1343.

Sincerely,

Kimberly McCall
Administrative Coordinator

Andrea Person, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-000374

ORDER

Alexis K. Lindsay, who represented petitioner before the circuit court in this matter, moves to be allowed to continue to represent petitioner on appeal in lieu of petitioner being appointed counsel from the Commission on Indigent Defense, Division of Appellate Defense. Ms. Lindsay states she will represent petitioner in a pro bono capacity, as will Thornwell F. Sowell, III, who served as co-counsel for petitioner before the circuit court in this matter. Neither the State nor the Division of Appellate Defense has filed a return to the motion. The motion is granted. Ms. Lindsay and Mr. Sowell are hereby appointed to continue as counsel for petitioner in this matter, in a pro bono capacity, with the Division of Appellate Defense being associated for the sole purpose of paying for any necessary transcript(s) and providing copies of the petition, appendix and any briefs.
