

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

APPEAL FROM ADMINISTRATIVE LAW COURT
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE JOHN D. MCLEOD

CASE No.: 2014-000832

Michael Goins # 302385 ----- Appellant, v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections ----- Respondents.

MOTION TO REINSTATE

COMES NOW Appellant, Michael Goins, respectfully requesting that this Honorable Court grants his Motion to Reinstate the above referenced case. The Grounds for this Motion is the fact that this case was dismissed by this Court stating that the Memorandum of the Administrative Law Court was not the final order. The Appellant's case in the Administrative Law Court was not even processed due to the fact that the ALC's clerk's office sent a copy of the attached Memorandum to the Appellant letting him know that because he had already filed three (3) consecutive cases with that court that year prior to this case, his case would not be processed without an $25.00 filing fee. The Appellant is an indigent, is unable to pay the filing fee so his case was not processed so he filed his case within this court. His case was dismissed for the reasons stated above and now he comes to have it reinstated for the possible misunderstanding. The Appellant lost 12 days good time in this case and would like to plead his case.

ORDER

Appellant has filed a notice of appeal from a memorandum of the Administrative Law Court Clerk's Office, which cites to S.C. Code Ann. §1-23-670 (Supp. 2013), and indicates his appeal to the ALC was not processed because it was not accompanied by the appropriate filing fee. Because the memorandum is not a final order, this appeal is dismissed. See Rule 201(a), SCACR ("Appeal may be taken, as provided by law from any final judgment, appealable order or decision.").

Memorandum

TO: Appellant
From: Clerk's Office, Administrative Law Court
Re: Filing Fee

If you file more than 3 administrative appeals during a calendar year, you are required to pay a $25 filing fee pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §1-23-670, which states in part:

"No filing fee is required in administrative appeals by inmates from final decisions of the Department of Corrections or the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. However, if an inmate files three administrative appeals during a calendar year, then each subsequent filing during that year must be accompanied by a twenty-five dollar filing fee."

Our records indicate you have filed 3 appeals in this calendar year and therefore the appeal attached is being returned and will not be processed unless it is accompanied by the appropriate fee.
