RE: Wachesaw Plantation East Community Services Association, Inc., Respondent vs. Todd C. Alexander, Petitioner
Appellate Case No. 2012-213400

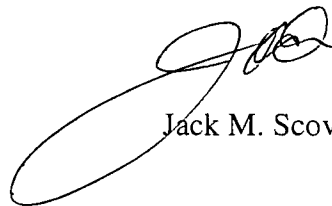

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I am afraid I may have created a little confusion with my request for an extension to respond in this case. I represent the third party bidder who is the actual real party in interest in the appeal. It is my understanding that the Respondent's brief is due on June 16th. Although my client is not a named Respondent, he is the real party in interest and will file a responsive brief to the Brief of Appellant. Therefore, I would greatly appreciate an additional 30 days from June 16th to file my client's brief. I anticipate filing it well before the end of the additional time but due to summer vacations, City Council business and other matters hurdling in my direction, I need a cushion to insure I do not let this slip by.

Your kind consideration in this matter is appreciated.

With kind regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

Jack M. Scoville, Jr.
