Re: William Thompson, 145029, v. Department Of Corrections, C/No. 3:04-22
109-17BC/2004-CP-40-3521

Honorable Jean Toal, Chief Justice of South Carolina Supreme Court
P.O. Box 11330, Columbia SC 29211

Dear Honorable Chief Justice:

I wrote you a letter concerning the enclosed form 4 Order. Per letter from Mr. Shearouse also enclosed. A formal order was issued signed and dated September 14, 2011. At first the Appellate Court referred to me as Mr. Thompson and then started addressing me as counsel. After getting it straightened out they started calling me counsel again. They keep holding to attorney standards as an attorney. Appellate Court said they did not receive most of my documents causing me to have to serve them over. The last papers served were my Final Brief. I had it sent return receipt and have not heard anything since. Return receipt date; May 21, 2013. Defendants served their Final Brief and the Appellate Court responded stating that they received it and that it was accepted. I don't understand the abuse from the Courts. I cannot do this legal work properly and need an attorney to make sure that justice is done. I don't Than you for any assistance you may be able to give.

Signed: William Thompson
