Statement of Issues on Appeal. Case# 2012-CP-12-0184

Appellate# 2014-000577

JUN 12 2014

RE: abuse of discretion.

S.C. SUPREME COURT

5. Whether the Court erred by ruling that applicant failed to meet the burden of proof as to the requirements for newly-discovered evidence in that: applicant 100% met the requirements and went through each one on the record at the hearing on August 6, 2013.

- (1) Is such as would probably change the result if a new trial was had
- (2) Has been discovered since the trial.
- (3) Could not by the exercise of due diligence have been discovered before trial.
- (4) Is material to the issue of guilt or innocence.
- (5) Is not merely cumulative or impeaching.

Hayden v. State, 278 S.C. 610, 611-12, 299 S.E.2d 854, 855 (1983).

6. Whether the Court erred by ruling that applicant's testimony regarding Ford's letter was not credible in that: the Court abused his discretion by presenting the false statement in the order which went against applicant's credibility on page #6. Where applicant 100% did not testify that Mr. Ford was murdered two months after the letter was written, in which the record will conclusively prove.
