Re: The State v. Jimmy Turner (Appellate Case No. 2013-000335)

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The Initial Brief of Appellant and Designation of Matter in the above case are due to be served and filed today. However, I have discovered that I need an additional transcript and would ask that my deadlines be placed in abeyance while I obtain a copy of this transcript. It is appellate counsel's belief that ordering this transcript will not create a significant delay because he believes it has already been transcribed and the court reporter merely needs to furnish this office with a copy. Attached is my office's request for the copy of the transcript.

Appellate counsel discovered from the trial transcript that this case was previously tried. The result was a hung jury. The prior trial transcript appears relevant to the potential issues on appeal.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

David Alexander
Appellate Defender
