RE: STATE v JAMES
Case # 2005-GS-19-00273;
2005 GS-19-00457

Dear Honorable Judge Keesley:

I am in receipt of your June 3, 14 order which vacates any issues concerning appointment of counsel for me on jurisdiction grounds. Although I think this is erroneous, I had noticed in your June 3, 14 order that you have based your decision on the brief and exhibits by the 11th circuit solicitor Donnie v Myers. I have not received a copy of the solicitor brief and exhibits regarding the April 23, 14 appointment of counsel hearing. As a result of this, I am requesting that you vacate or suspend your June 3, 14 order for lack of jurisdiction and please give me enough time to Respond to solicitor Myers said brief and exhibits. Both procedural due process and South Carolina rules of court requires this. Again, I have a right to Respond to solicitor Myers said brief and exhibits, so I can at least perfect the Record for appeal.

Thank you for Reading this letter.

Dear Mr. Solicitor Myers:

This letter is regarding the Honorable Judge William P. Keesley requesting at the April 23, 14 appointment of counsel hearing for the interested parties there to brief why Elizabeth Franklin = Best, a private attorney, should or should not be appointed to this case. I was not served your brief and exhibits that was the basis of the Honorable Judge Keesley June 3, 14 order for lack of jurisdiction in appointing counsel for me in my Capital case. As a result of this, can you please send me a copy of your brief and exhibits regarding the appointment of counsel hearing.

A copy of this letter have been served to the clerks of the state supreme court and Edgefield County Clerks Office.
