Debbie:

This is just to follow-up on my letter to you regarding the above-captioned case. I spoke with Judge Manning and he wants Thomas Sims removed from the stipulation as unnecessary. Opposing counsel, Don Zelenka, is fine with that arrangement. I do not have a problem with that resolution either. Consequently, I sent the revised stipulation to PCR counsel Keir Weyble to sign. He is going to sign it and send it back to me. I will then have Don Zelenka sign it, and I will forward it to second chair PCR counsel Robert Lominack for his signature. I understand Mr. Lominack is out of the country this week on a school trip. I think he will be back next week and we can bring this matter to a close with his signature on the stipulation. Please let me know if you would like this email reduced to a formal letter. Thank you as always –
