Re: Mark Ellis Brown v. State
Appellate Case No. 2013-001024

Dear CLERK OF COURT;

On April 3rd 2014 I received a letter from Mr. Daniel E. Shearouse CLERK OF COURT for The Supreme Court of South Carolina stating my petition for writ of certiorari was without merit (Appellate Case No. 2013-001024). The letter also stated that I had forty-five (45) days to file a pro se response with this Court.

On May 14th 2014 I sent my response through the Lee Correctional mail room. On this particular day I had to add an additional twenty-one cents (.21¢) of postage to the envelope containing my response. I have a computer screen page printout verifying a deduction was made by the Lee Correctional Institution mail services for that amount on that day.

As of Monday June 16th 2014, I have not received any type of information or clock stamped copy of my response confirming it had reached the CLERK OF COURT office. The clock stamp copy is a vital and normal procedure so the Petitioner can insure and protect legal rights.

Please submit a copy of receipt of my pro se response so that I may protect my rights afforded by our legal system. If there are any questions or concerns please contact me at the above address.

I thank you for your time and assistance in this very important matter.

Respectfully Submitted by Petitioner
