RE: Thomas P. and Desiree J. Lyons, Respondent, v. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, et.al., Appellant, Civil Case No. 2012-CP-26-05222 ; Appellate Case No.: 2013-002137

Dear Ms. Holland:

Apparently there has been some confusion on our part over exactly what you have been requesting in your deficiency letters. I employed a publisher to assist me in this matter and she assured me that she attempted to telephone you since we received the letters. Please note, however, that at no time did we ignore your letters. I was able to speak with Ms. Elizabeth Carter yesterday to clarify everything. I understand that four deficiencies exist:

1- The proof of service for my record on appeal has not been signed. Please find a signed proof of service for my record on appeal enclosed. Since Ms. James served it, she signed the Certificate of Service.

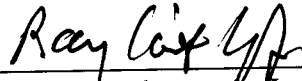

2- The record on appeal was not accompanied by the required certificate of counsel. You will find my certificate of counsel and proof of its service on Mr. Haller. From my conversation with Ms. Carter yesterday, it is my understanding that this particular Certificate must only be served on Mr. Haller.

3- My final reply brief was not accompanied by the required certificate of counsel. You will find my certificate of counsel and proof of its service on Mr. Haller. From my conversation with Ms. Carter yesterday, it is my understanding that this particular Certificate must also only be served on Mr. Haller.

4- All counsel of record, addresses, and phone numbers must be listed on the cover of the record on appeal.(Rule 267 SCACR) Ms. Carter informed me that you would accept labels to remedy this error. Please find the labels enclosed.

We are enclosing three copies of each original document, and I hope this resolves any errors or omissions on my part.

Sincerely,

Ray Coit Yarborough, Jr.
