RE: State v. Robert Prang
Appellate Case No. 2014-938

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I have received a letter from your office dated May 29th regarding the above-captioned case. After checking with my office records, the last time I represented Robert Prang was in 2008. I have not represented him on any matters since then, nor have I filed any appeals on his behalf. My representation of Mr. Prang ended on October of 2008. I do not understand why your office has made me his counsel of record. According to our office records, the last time Mr. Prang was represented by my office was by Mr. Scott Thomason on a guilty plea to an assault and battery on July 25, 2013.

It appears that Mr. Prang has filed a pro se appeal from a probation violation hearing heard on April 25, 2014 in Pickens County. I did not represent Mr. Prang at that hearing. Therefore, I am respectfully requesting that my name be removed as his counsel of record immediately. If there is some other reason why I am considered as his attorney, please let me know, otherwise I would ask that my name be removed as his attorney on his appeal.

I look forward to your assistance on this matter. I would also respectfully ask that you confirm my removal as counsel for my records.

Very truly yours,
