CONSENT ORDER RELIEVING COUNSEL

Defendants and their attorney agree that Defendants retained the services of the undersigned attorney for the purpose of pursuing the above-referenced case through the Court of Common Pleas through trial, if necessary, and that such representation would thereafter cease. The matter has been tried in the Court of Common Pleas with a non-jury verdict having been rendered in favor of the Plaintiff on May 9, 2012 and an Order Denying Relief from Judgment having been signed and filed on May 19, 2014. It appears that Defendants received written notice of the court's decision on May 22, 2014. It further appears that Defendants and their attorney consent to termination of the attorney/client relationship in accordance with their mutual understanding of the relationship and evidence the same by their respective signatures below.

The Court finds that the attorney/client relationship between Ernest Fleming, Jr., Gwendolyn Fleming and Joseph Henry, P.C. should be dissolved and the attorney should be relieved as their counsel at this time.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
