Dear Mr. Smalls:

We understand that the Supreme Court gave you until May 5, 2014 to provide that Court with the name of the attorney that will represent you in the appeal from the denial of post-conviction relief. If you have not retained counsel, and if you want our office to represent you we will need additional information pertaining to your affidavit of indigency before we can determine your eligibility for representation. Please provide us with the following information with documentation if at all possible:

- Are you currently employed? If so, what is your income?
- If you are not currently employed, are you disabled?

Please send us this information by May 21, 2014 so we can determine if you are eligible for our representation. If we do not hear from you we will assume you do not desire our assistance with your appeal.

Sincerely,
