

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Billy Lee Lisenby, JR., #200273, Appellant, v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent

Appellate Case NO. 2012-213396

Motion TO Reconsider Due To Unforeseen Reasons

The above Appellant would like The Honorable Paul Short JR; TO Reconsider his 4-18-14 Order "Due TO Unforeseen Reasons."

The above case is some what confusing. Initially this started out as (2) cases, Appellant then asked for the cases to be consolidated. Prior to this Honorable Court granting the motion to consolidated, Appellate filed an Initial Brief in both cases. Once the cases were consolidated, Appellant filed an amended initial brief to argue all his issues and both cases.

If this court denies him the right to amend his initial brief and Final brief out of time, he will not be able to argue both cases, and this would defeat the purpose of consolidating them.

Appellant ask that this Honorable Court please grant his "Motion TO Reconsider Due TO Unforeseen Reasons" and except Appellant's amended initial brief out of time and amended final brief out of time.
