MOTION FOR EXTENSION

The Appellant's Initial Reply Brief is currently due June 23, 2014, a date set by this Court in its order granting the Respondent's motion to file an amended Initial Brief of Respondent and Designation. The Appellant respectfully requests a twenty (20) day extension the serve and file its Initial Reply Brief, making the brief due on July 14, 2014. The additional time is needed due to conflicts in undersigned counsel's schedule and because, inter alia, Respondent cites fifty-one (51) cases in a fifty (50) page brief. Reviewing this many cases requires a substantial amount of time, as does responding to a brief of this length. This is Appellant's first request for an extension on its Reply Brief and counsel for Respondent (Frank Potts) has consented to the extension.

Respectfully Submitted,
