

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Basil W. Akbar, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-002306

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion for the appointment of counsel. After careful consideration, Appellant's motion is denied. See Rule 608(g), SCACR (providing that counsel should not be appointed for an indigent unless the indigent has a right to appointed counsel under the state or federal constitution, a statute, a court rule, or the case law of this State); Ex parte Dibble, 279 S.C. 592, 310 S.E.2d 440 (Ct. App. 1983) (holding there is no constitutional right to counsel in civil cases).

Respondent has filed a motion requesting this court determine whether the record on appeal filed by Appellant complies with Rules 210 and 267, SCACR. After reviewing the record on appeal, we find the following deficiencies:

- (1) The record on appeal does not contain a certificate of counsel as provided by Rule 210(g), SCACR; and
- (2) The record on appeal does not contain all matters designated by Respondent.

Appellant shall, within twenty days, serve a supplemental record on appeal correcting these deficiencies. The time frames for serving and filing the final briefs shall be stayed until Appellant serves the supplemental record on appeal.

Appellant's motion for an order compelling discovery is denied.
