RE: officers denying access to the courts.

I'm an inmate at Perry Correctional and I humbly request that something be done about how officers are denying me access to the courts. I have on more than one occasion been denied access to the courts. The officers here try to dictate how and when you can serve the courts with court ordered deadlines. On two occasions and it's documented with SCDC General Counsel officers are going through inmate legal boxes and throwing away hand written documents and documents they feel isn't legal. I have missed deadlines on filing grievances and have rushed motions and petitions due to staff denying access to the courts. I can prove these allegations through documents. On ~~5-30-14~~ 5-30-14 I was placed in the holding cell and charged for not returning to the dorm and insisting on going to the mailroom. I hope this matter is addressed and I look forward to your disposition.
