Re: The State v. Nathaniel Glenn, Jr.
Appellate Case No. 2013-000919

Dear Mr. Glenn:

We are returning your Final Reply Brief received on June 12, 2014. According to Rule 210(a) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), you must first serve the record on appeal and provide a proof of service before you serve and file any final briefs. Further, your Final Reply Brief does not comply with Rule 211, SCACR, as to content. The final brief must be identical to the initial brief except for references to the record and corrections of typographical errors and misspellings. Rule 211(b), SCACR. The content of the Final Reply Brief you submitted is not identical to the Brief of Opposition which was deemed to be your initial reply brief.

According to our records, proof of service of the record on appeal upon opposing counsel was due to be served and filed by June 16, 2014. You must file a motion to be allowed to serve the record on appeal late and serve opposing counsel with a copy of the record on appeal within fifteen (15) days of this letter.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
