The Courageous Resolution in Berry

I do solemnly resolve before God that during, and after, my incarceration:

I will learn from my mistakes, repent of my sins, and walk with integrity as a man answerable to God.

I will take full responsibility for my actions, past, present and future.

I will pray without ceasing that in His Time, Gods' river of grace and mercy will bring me out of this prison to those with whom I belong.

I will be faithful to my wife and children, to love and honor them, and be willing to lay down my life for them as Jesus Christ did for me.

I will confront evil, pursue justice, and love mercy.

I will honor authority and live responsibly.

I will strive without ceasing to maintain communication with my family and church outside of prison.

I will bless my children and teach them to love God with all of their hearts, all of their minds, and all of their strength.

I will forgive those who have wronged me and reconcile with those I have wronged.

I will seek to honor God, be faithful to His church, obey His word, and do His will.

I will courageously work with the strength God provides to fulfill this resolution for the rest of my life and for His glory.
