Re: National Security Fire & Casualty Co. v. Rosemary Jenrette, et al.,
Case No.: 2011-CP-26-9199

Dear Ms. Hurley:

I represented the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette during a non-jury trial that you recorded on December 16, 2013. The non-jury proceeding involved the trial of the case captioned: National Security Fire & Casualty Company v. Rosemary Long Jenrette and Horry County State Bank, 2011-CP-26-9199, and was held before the Honorable George C. James, Jr. on December 16, 2013 at the Horry County Courthouse in Horry County. Please note that I am representing the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette, as the Appellant, in an appeal of the above-captioned action. A Notice of Appeal was recently filed and was served on June 11, 2014.

On February 26, 2014, I formally requested a copy of the trial transcript from the December 16, 2013 non-jury trial. I ordered the trial transcript in advance of the instant appeal and during the pendency of my client's Motion to Reconsider so that I would be prepared to furnish a copy if required or requested. I forwarded you a payment in the sum of $546.00 upon receipt of your invoice and notice of completion of the preparation of the trial transcript. I am in receipt of the copies of the trial transcript and index which you emailed to my office on April 24, 2014 in pdf format. However, I am unable to locate a copy of the signed certificate, dated April 23, 2014. Please forward a copy of the signed certificate, dated April 23, 2014, in pdf format to me at your earliest convenience via email at trey@deschampslaw.com.

Please note that I am forwarding this request for purposes of compliance with Rule 207(a)(1), SCACR. By way of carbon copy, I am simultaneously forwarding copies of this correspondence to opposing counsel, South Carolina Court Administration, and the Clerk of Court for the South Carolina Court of Appeals. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have
