Re: Anonymous Companies v. SCDLLR
Appellate Case No. 2014-000774

Dear Counsel:

The Court has received Anonymous Companies' petition for rehearing and/or supersedeas and for sanctions, as well as a return and reply to the petition. Rule 269, SCACR, is premised on the requirement that no person may file an appeal that is frivolous, or for an improper purpose. The Court is concerned that Appellant did not understand its responsibility to explain in its return the non-frivolous basis in law and fact on which it was entitled to file this appeal, and the proper purpose for which the appeal was filed. Accordingly, the Court directs Appellant to serve a supplemental return within five days of the date of this letter, specifically addressing the legal and factual basis on which this Court could conclude the appeal was not frivolous, and explaining the proper purpose for the appeal.

Very truly yours,
