Re: The State v. John Champaign
Appellate Case No. 2014-000275

Dear Mr. Champaign:

This responds to your letter dated June 19, 2014.

If you believed the South Carolina Court of Appeals erred in dismissing this appeal, then a timely petition for rehearing should have been filed with the South Carolina Court of Appeals. Rule 221 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. When no timely petition for rehearing was received by the Court of Appeals, the remittitur was sent to the circuit court on May 5, 2014. The sending of the remittitur ended appellate jurisdiction over this case. Wise v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007).

Very truly yours,

CLERK

Appellate Case No. 2014-000275

I John Champaigne am writing this notice in concern of my case that was dismissed. They say I have failed to provide sufficient explanation as required by Rule 203 (d)(1)(C)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) but it was not I who couldn't give an sufficient explanation it was my attorney Rodney D. Davis who refused to give the Courts the proper explanation, he gave none at all.

I John Champaigne know for a fact that "Principle Perpetrator" is a good one to start off. Specially when the Judge bases your case on the hand-of-one hands-of-all law and the prosecution is under an invalid or unjust statue which the courts did not consider the contention, United States Constitution Article I Section 16.

I have proper paperwork that my attorney at the time Rodney D. Davis was not for me but against, enclosed is that paperwork from S.C Bar Assoc. Conflict of interest. I also brought it to the Judge attention but he overlooked the matter. They have remitted my case to the lower court or tribunal.

I am now filing an PCR at this moment unjust was done on my behalf my sentence is to severe for something that I am innocent of. If you can please see into this matter immediately I will appreciate it. Thank You for your time and concern. Which I have no co-defendant in these cases. No prints, Do DNA, not at crime scene, no point of entry. Please have my case re-opened immediately. I've also sent for my transcripts.

RE: Letter to SC Bar

Dear Mr. Champaigne:

The South Carolina Bar is not authorized to give any legal advice. Also, we are not authorized to investigate or discipline attorneys and do not have the authority to replace or remove appointed attorneys.

You can contact the 9th Circuit Public Defender and make him aware of the issues that you are currently having with your appointed attorney. (He is the supervisor of your appointed attorney). You can write to him at:

D. Ashley Pennington
101 Meeting Street, 5th Floor
Charleston, SC 29401-2214

another conflict of interest

If that does not resolve your issues, you can file a complaint against your attorney by writing to the Commission on Lawyer Conduct. You can write to them at:

Commission on Lawyer Conduct
PO Box 12159
Columbia, SC 29211

If you decide to file a complaint, in your letter make sure to include the name of your attorney and, describe as best you can, why you believe your attorney has acted inappropriately.

Sincerely,
