RE: Letter to SC Bar

Dear Mr. Champaigne:

The South Carolina Bar is not authorized to give any legal advice. Also, we are not authorized to investigate or discipline attorneys and do not have the authority to replace or remove appointed attorneys.

You can contact the 9th Circuit Public Defender and make him aware of the issues that you are currently having with your appointed attorney. (He is the supervisor of your appointed attorney). You can write to him at:

D. Ashley Pennington
101 Meeting Street, 5th Floor
Charleston, SC 29401-2214

and the conflict of interest

If that does not resolve your issues, you can file a complaint against your attorney by writing to the Commission on Lawyer Conduct. You can write to them at:

Commission on Lawyer Conduct
PO Box 12159
Columbia, SC 29211

If you decide to file a complaint, in your letter make sure to include the name of your attorney and, describe as best you can, why you believe your attorney has acted inappropriately.

Sincerely,

Client Assistance Program

Appellate Case No. 2014-000275

I John Champaigne am writing this notice in concern of my case that was dismissed. They say I have failed to provide a sufficient explanation as required by Rule 203 (d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCAR) but it was not I who couldn't give an sufficient explanation it was my attorney Rodney D. Davis who refused to give the courts proper explanation, he gave none at all.

I John Champaigne know for a fact the "Principle Perpetrator" is a good one to start of with specially when you have no co-defendant and the Judge bases your case on the hands of one hand of all law. With no fingerprints, no DNA, no enyrs and the prosecution is under an unvalrd or unjust statute and which the courts did not take into consider the contention. United States Constitution Article I Section 2.

I have propr paperwork that my attorney at the time Rodney D. Davis was not for me but against me, enclosed is paperwork from S.C Bar Assoc. Conflict of Interest. I also brought to the Judge attention be he overbaur the matter. They have admitted my case to the lower courts or tribunal. I am now filing a P.C.R at this moment unjust was done on my behalf. my sentence is to serve for something that I am innocent of. Please see into this matter immediatly. Please have my case re-opened. Thank you for your time and concern. I've also sent for my transcript.
