Re: Marshall Miller vs. South Carolina Office of Appellate Defense, et al.

Dear Mr. Miller:

This is a follow-up to your June 25, 2014 letter requesting a copy of your November 30, 2012 PCR hearing transcript so you can draft your petition for writ of certiorari. We are working to get you everything that you need.

I thought that your appendix had already been printed while you were represented by Dee Compton since Mr. Compton and I had discussed the printing of that appendix on several occasions while he represented you. I was informed last week that while Mr. Compton has all your material for your appendix -- in order -- it was never printed before he was relieved. We are in the process of obtaining that information and Appendix from Mr. Compton and will forward it to you as soon as it is in our possession. We hope to send all of this information to you next week. We should be able to add whatever else you want to Mr. Compton's appendix at that time and you can then file your certiorari petition.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Dudek
Chief Appellate Defender
