

SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

David Buff # 311020

APPELLANT,

vs.

South Carolina Department of Corrections et. al.,
RESPONDENT.

APPELLATE CASE No. 2014-000045

MOTION FOR REHEARING

Appellant herewith moves before this Court seeking a rehearing on the Order dismissing his appeal on June 12, 2014. Appellant seeks a rehearing on the following grounds:

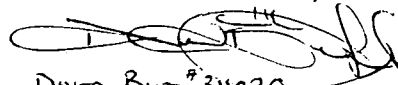

1.) That the Court of Appeals allow Appellant, a pro se litigant, to supplement the record with the required documents, as may be in Appellants possession, so that Appellant may have the opportunity to remedy this deficiency of an insufficient record;

2.) That before an Order of dismissal was entered, Appellant should have been notified of the need for him to file a copy of the record on appeal, in order to place Appellant on notice and the need to file such with the Court; and

3.) Rehearing for Appellants original argument: "Is it constitutional to force an inmate serving a ten (10) year sentence at eighty-five (85) percent to serve ninety (90) percent of that sentence when he has violated no prison disciplinary rules?"

Appellant prays for a rehearing of his Appeal based on the aforementioned grounds.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

DAVID BUFF # 311020
