RE: Goldie G. Reeves v. Rogers c. Reeves
Apellate Case No. 2013-002082

Dear Mr. Devlin:

Did you record the arbitration of Goldie Reeves V. Rogers c. reeves that took place at you office RE;C.A.No 2009cp-23-8727. I was told by Mr. Daniels you were recording and I recall you did have and use a recording device. I would like to get the digital tapes and have them Transcribed.

Please tell me how I can pick up the tape s and handle this as I need your information for my appeal case. Nadine Vick of the court Reporter company Depositions and has agreed to help me in this matter.

I would appreciate your cooperation .

Sincerely yours,
Goldie Reeves

Re: Goldie G. Reeves v. Dr. Rogers C. Reeves
Appelate Case No. 2013-oo2082

To the Honor able Judge Jasper M. Cureton:

In response to your order filed 1/2/14. the appellant is notifying the court of proceeding pro se at this time and is seeking an attorney and will advise the court when an attorney is obtained.

The appellant disagrees with the former <sup>or</sup> counsel M. Lee. Daniels, Jr.'s opinion and does believe there certainly legitimate grounds for an appeal in this case. It is of vital importance an appeal be granted so the truth of the facts in these matters be heard, considered and readjudicated. unbiasedly.

The appellatnt prays the court is in alignment with such a position.

Respectfully submitted,
Goldie G. Reeves
