SC Court of Appeals

Christine,

As I wrote to you previously, I have filed a Notice of Intent to Appeal on your behalf and I anticipate that you will be contacted by the Office of Appellate Defense at some point regarding the merits of your appeal.

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter from the South Carolina Court of Appeals which contains The Court's address and instructions for you to advise the court within 20 days of any issues you may have to appeal. As I noted in my previous letter to you, I did not believe there were any issues but out of an abundance of caution and to preserve your rights I filed the notice upon your request.

If you believe you have any legal ground to appeal the rulings or sentence associated with your guilty plea, you must advise The Court as instructed herein. Good luck.

Sincerely,

Derek S. Chiarenza

Christine,

Enclosed please find copies of a Notice of Intent to Appeal and Certificate of Service which I have filed on your behalf at your request. By copy of this letter I am advising the Office of Appellate Defense of this matter who will review your case for appropriate action.

South Carolina rules require that any notice of appeal relating to a guilty plea must contain a statement of the issues to be raised on appeal. I am not aware of any appellate issues related to your plea and you did not specify any when we spoke after the plea but I filed the notice anyway since you requested that I do so in order to preserve your right to appeal. If you believe you have a specific legal ground to appeal, you should discuss that with the office of appellate defense who can potentially amend or supplement the notice that I filed. Good luck.

Sincerely,

Derek S. Chiarenza
