AFFIDAVIT

Comes now your affiant, who affirms that he is more than eighteen (18) years of age, and qualified to make the affirmation. That I was employed by the Appellant and his family to represent Appellant in the trial of above mentioned cases in the Court of General Sessions for Aiken County. At no time was there any agreement between Attorney and Client for the Attorney to represent Appellant in any appeal, and no legal fees were ever collected to do so. When discussing with Appellant, at trial the nature of the evidence of the State, at the trial and the real possibility that he would get convicted, we had a discussion of an appeal and the expense therefor, he told me at that time he could not afford to pay for an appeal. Out of an abundance of precaution, I promised to give him the names and addresses of the people he would need to get in touch with to perfect his appeal, in a timely manner, if he changed his mind. Since that time I became aware that there is an office of Appeals for indigent Appellants, in South Carolina. I was informed by that office, that I needed to give Notice of Appeal, and have the Appellant do an Affidavit of his financial condition, and they would be happy to take a look at his case. I did the Notice of Appeal and was sent two (2) affidavits, that was sent to the Appellant for him to complete, and he has not sent them back to me. I have done everything I know to do to try to make contact with Appellant or any member of his family, and they have not responded to me, as of today.

I was recently informed that the transcript need to be Ordered to start the process. I have no money for the transcript, and Appellant has not indicated that he is too poor to pay for it himself, so I am at a place where I can go no further.

Re: Appeal of Jamaques Salley,

Dear Ms. Allen;

I have done everything I know to do to try to make contact with the appellant and or, his family members to come up with the money to pay for the Transcript of the Record. I sent to the Appellant two (2) Affidavits, for him to complete, as to his inability to pay, for his Appeal, and they have not been returned. I called his mother's phone, and left word for her to get in touch, and I have not heard anything from anybody, so it would seem that the only thing I can do is seek permission of the Court to withdraw, so that the appellant can get someone he can work with on his appeal.

Please let me know whether I will need to be present for this Motion to be heard? If there is anything else I need to do please give me a call, and let me know what it is I should do.

Sincerely,

Thomas D. Broadwater, Sr.
