

In the State of South Carolina vs. Dennis Rodger Davis Jr.

I am appealing the Judges decision and/or sentence I received on May 21, 2014. The trial Judge sentenced me to guidelines of a third offense drug charge. When I should have been sentenced to a second offense on all charges which made the trial Judges decision an error. From my lay understanding of the state law or statute a misdemeanor offense is exempt from the felony classification system. Clearly stated in 16-1-10 (c) All offenses with a term of imprisonment of 1 year or less are misdemeanors and are exempt from the classification system. So from my lay understanding of the law I should have been sentenced under the second offense state law/statute instead of a third or subsequent offense. So I exercised my right to appeal the Judges decision. I am currently being held at the Kirkland R+I Institution so my time and supplies are limited which is why my response is on this scratch paper. Thank you with your help and time with this matter.

Legally yours, Dennis Rodger Davis Jr.
