RE: The State vs. Mare Baracco; Case No. 2013-CP-07-00918
Appellate Case No.: 2014-000636

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please see my Appeal extension letter (attached). To clarify for the Court and the file, I would ask the Court take note I meant to say "I just received evidence on June 9, which was not made available to me previously, that I believe qualifies under a Motion for Rule 29(b)". I mistakenly wrote Rule 60(b), which was a typo on my part.

I apologize for the confusion.

Sincerely,

Mare Baracco, Pro Se

RE: The State vs. Mare Baracco, Case No. 2013-CP-07-00918
Appellate Case No.: 2014-000636

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please accept this letter as my formal request for an additional 30 day extension to file my initial Brief that is now due on June 23, 2014, in the above referenced matter. It is my understanding that upon your approval of this extension, my initial Brief will be due July 23, 2014. I am enclosing a check for the filing fee of $25.00 required in requesting this extension.

There are several reasons I am asking for this additional extension. First, because I just received evidence on June 9, which was not made available to me previously, that I believe qualifies under a Motion for Rule 60(b); the lead counsel for the State, which is the opposing party in my case, has informed me they are requesting to be relieved from the case; and I am awaiting correspondence from the Court as to whether my case is designated as a Civil or Criminal matter.

I would ask that if the Court will not grant my request for a 30-day extension to file my initial Brief, that you please contact me immediately at maremailmmm@yahoo.com or at the telephone number noted above.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration of my request.

Sincerely,

Mare Baracco, Pro Se
