Re; The State v. Richard D. McCoy Appellate Case No 2014-001396

I am respectfully writing you in concerns of the appeal my argument is I did not understand the sentence

I was told I was to sign for a 1 year plea and I did not get a one year plea, I was suppose to go in front of the honorable Judge McCullley that's the day I signed the plea, a few days later I went in front of the Honorable G. Edward Welmaker and he gave me 1 year to run consecutive with 1 year. I did not understand what he had sentenced me too until my Public defender Mr Brian Horrocks come over to me and told me what had happened on the sentence that he had handed down to me, I have a disability that is reconized by the state and The government for which I was drawing disability.

I did not understand my plea and that's why I had my Attorney with the Public Defender's office Mr Brian Horrocks, SC Bar #101043 301 Camson Road he should testify and he knows I did not understand the sentence I was given...

my Argument is not understanding the plea I signed a plea of 1 year and I did not get the plea that I signed. The plea I signed was a 1 year plea deal, and I got another 1 year sentence to run — consecutive that was not my understanding of the plea that The Honorable G. Edward Welmaker sentenced me too. I signed a 1 year plea and I did not get it my attorney Mr Brian Horrocks did not tell me until the sentence was handed down a few minutes later

THANKS
Sincerely yours

Richard Danny McCoy

I received the letter July 11th 2014
