Re: State v. Matthew Demond Gallishaw
Appellate Case No. 2013-000641

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

While going over this appeal, I have discovered that there was a motion to reconsider, a hearing on the motion, and an order denying the motion. I have written Sumter County on June 25 and June 27, and have not gotten an answer on when the motion hearing was held. I would like to have this case held in abeyance until we find out the motion hearing date and when we get possession of the transcript after ordering it.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Pachak
Appellate Defender

Jack:
I sent this to your office Wednesday and I did not hear from anybody. Time limits are running on this case and I need the motion to reconsider information to order the transcript. Can you get someone in the office to help me?
Thanks,
Rob Pachak

Subject: Matthew Gallishaw appeal Due 7/7

I have been appointed to handle this appeal. The notice of intent to appeal filed by Christopher Shipman states that there was a motion to reconsider. I contacted Christopher and he said there was a hearing on the motion but he did not have the date. I will need the date of the hearing and the court reporter to order a transcript of the hearing before Judge James. I will also need a copy of his order denying the motion.

Thanks,
Rob Pachak
