RE: Samuel T. Brick v. Richland County Planning Commission and Fairways Development, LLC, Intervenor
Appellate Case Number: 2014-000583
Civil Action Number: 2013-CP-40-1643
Our File Number: 314.9169

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter is to confirm that the Respondent Richland County Planning Commission takes the position that the time limits for the filing of its Initial Respondent's Brief has been stayed in accordance with Rule 240(b), SCRCP, during the pendency of the Respondent Fairways Development, LLC's Motion to Dismiss Appeal. If there is not a stay in place pursuant to Rule 240(b), please advise and in that case please allow this letter to serve as a request for a thirty day extension for the Initial Respondent's Brief.

It should be noted that the Appellant has appealed from the Circuit Court's order granting Fairways Development, LLC's motion to dismiss, and as a result, Fairways Development, LLC should be identified in the caption as a Respondent. In fact, in his Notice of Appeal, the Appellant identified Fairways Development, LLC as the Intervenor/Respondent and served the Notice of Appeal on Fairways Development, LLC's counsel. Therefore, there should be no question that Fairways Development, LLC is a party to this appeal.

If it is necessary to treat this letter as an extension request, please advise and I will forward a $25 filing fee. I am not include that fee with this letter on the belief and understanding that the time limits for filing the Initial Respondent's Brief is current being held in abeyance.

The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings
