

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
IN THE COURT OF APPEALS

Appeal from Chester County
Court of Common Pleas
Brooks P. Goldsmith, Circuit Court Judge

Trial Court Case Number 2011-CP-12-00595

Mell Woods, Appellant,

v.

John D. Hinson, Respondent.

Court of Appeals Number: 2012-212429

Appellant's Response to the Respondent Motion for Costs

SC Court of Appeals

The respondent motion for costs is premature, and should either be denied, or at least held in abeyance pending the resolution of the following two motions:

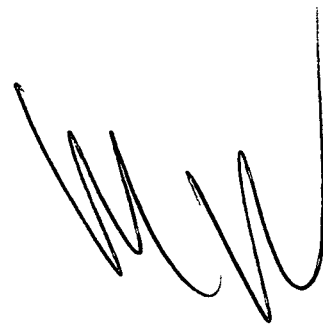

Motion Number One

A motion to reinstate this appeal is pending in the South Carolina Supreme Court.

Motion Number Two

An additional Motion to recall the remittitur sent by the South Carolina Court of Appeals Clerk's Office prior to the expiration of 15 days is pending in the Court of Appeals, with the basis of the Motion being that Rule 260(a) SCACR, requires that 15 days must first elapse before a remittitur is sent to the lower court. [this case was administratively dismissed by the Clerk of the Supreme Court, instead of being ruled on by the Supreme Court itself.]

Respectfully submitted,
this 21 day of July, 2014.
