SC Court of Appeals

Amanda Lawrence and
Trident United Way et Al,

Respondents,

v.

Karen Oliver,

Appellant.

MOTION

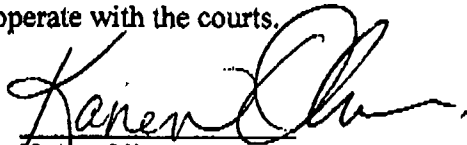

Karen Oliver presents this motion for Reconsideration of her appeal due to extenuating circumstances involving her health following a car accident. The Appellant ask the court to allow her to regain physical her strength through her rehabilitation while under doctor's care. She experienced a setback last month. The Appellant's family currently has one parent who is non-ambulatory and now she has been at risk of having her ambulatory skills being limited. The Appellant is asking for the Court of Appeals to grant a Reconsideration and a Continuation in this matter. This ordeal has been very hard on her offspring as well as the Appellant.

Appellant, Karen Oliver, was not provided with a copy of the Motion for Dismissal and was not allowed to respond in accordance with the rule. Appellant is requesting that a copy of the Motion be lawfully provided by Respondents?

counsel. On the Order received from the Court of Appeals its notes Fagnoli and Lindemann along with the Appellant to receive copies I never received any paperwork from any of these individuals concerning any recent motion made to the courts.

Appellant, Karen Oliver, was not notified of any changes to the Respondents' legal counsel. Full Disclosure should have been made. Lindemann is not for the Appellant, therefore, this should have been disclosed to the Appellant. Compromising of the Appellant's right to full disclosure was made along with her Rights to Due Process. Please provide proof of disclosure.

Appellant, Karen Oliver, made the timely attempts to gain the transcript. Initially, within the guidelines of the rules. The Court Reporter did not respond. Again, the Appellant tried as instructed to the Court Administration. The Appellant had a major setback in her health in recovering from an accident. The Appellant is and has been willing to cooperate with the courts.
